General Integration Course

Learn German and understand the Country

Welcome to your new homeland Germany

You have been living in Germany for a short time and would like to learn German? We can help you with our integration courses: In our language course (a total of 600 lessons of 45 minutes each lesson) you will learn the vocabulary that will help you in your everyday life in Germany. You will learn how to have conversations with neighbours, while shopping or at work, as well as how to write letters or fill out forms at school or at the doctor's surgery.

In the following orientation course „Living in Germany“ (a total of 100 lessons /45 minutes each lesson) you will learn important information about history, culture and politics in Germany. After this course, you will be able to find your way around your new home in Germany more comfortably.

You can achieve these goals with our courses:

- Language course „Basic“: Language level up to A2.1 (300 lessons in total)
- Language course „Intermediate“: Language level up to B1.2 (300 lessons in total)
- Language test: German Test for Migrants (DTZ) A2/B1
- Test „Living in Germany“: Required for admission to the Naturalisation Test

Your first step towards registration:

Come to our Education Centre during our office hours. We will check your admission requirements for you and submit your application

- for admission to the BAMF integration course
- for exemption from costs and
- reimbursement of travel expenses

We will also arrange an appointment to have your language level assessed.

You can take part in our language course if you belong to this target group:

- Asylum seekers and refugees
- Foreign nationals
- Late repatriates
- EU citizens

To register, please bring the following with you:

- Your identity card/passport
- Valid certificate of registration
- Authorisation to attend the integration course from the Job Centre or obligation to attend from the Immigration Authority Registration Office or Social Welfare Office
- Benefit notification (Job Centre, Social Welfare Office, Employment Agency), housing benefit notification

We accompany you from the first consultation to the final exams at the end of your course.
